Bids for the construction of a new court house for Wailuku are expected to be published soon.

There will be services as usual at the church of the Good Shepherd Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca K. Holstein, wife of E. C. Holstein of Honolulu, died Monday at the Leahi Hospital at the age of 40 years. The deceased was a sister-in-law of Thos. Holstein, Wailuku central for the Maui Telephone Co., and of H. L. Holstein, speaker of the House during the last session of the Legislature.

A native man working on the steamer Iwalani at Makena Friday morning was injured and will probably have to have part of his foot amputated. Dr. Dinegar went to Kihel and brought him over to the Malulani Hospital about noon of Friday.

The death of Judge Kahaulelio was reported from Lahaina just before we went to press on Friday. The Judge was a very old Hawaiian and has held many responsible positions during his lifetime including a prominent position with the school board in the early days. He was tax assessor for many years and was district magistrate for Lahaina for about twenty years.

One of the smaller reservoirs of the Wailuku Sugar Company burst Friday morning and as the waters rushed into the large reservoir on the edge of the Maalea road this reservoir burst and would have done much damage but for the prompt action of head luna Roberts and the ditch man opened the reservoirs and allowed the water to escape as much as possible and then got a large force of men to work on the reservoirs and prevent all of the water rushing out at once.

The picnic to be given by Miss Emma Peplowski up Iao valley in honor of Miss Annie Hocking has been postponed to Sunday September the eighth. About twenty-five guests have been invited and a pleasant day is assured.

Attend the auction sale at Paia today and secure some choice bargains.

Henry Maialoha of Wahee, a well known resident of Maui died at his home Thursday afternoon. He had been ill many months and his death was not unexpected.

Road Building in Kauai County.

LIHUE, August 24.—The county of Kauai expects to build about six miles of macadamized road during the present year. The contract for the road from the landing at Nawiliwili to the northwards, which had been awarded to John Wilson, was, on his bankruptcy, taken over by the county, his bondsmen being held responsible. The work is actually being done at a lower rate than his bid, so that the bondsmen, whom it was thought at first would be heavy losers, will not suffer any loss at all. The work is being done under the direction of Road Supervisor Moroney.

It is probable that the excessive floods that have occurred in several parts of Kauai will be responsible for cutting down the amount of road work that can be done, as several bridges have been destroyed or damaged and will have to be replaced or repaired. This it is expected will take from four to five thousand dollars.

Kauai is thoroughly satisfied with the way county government is working out. In public improvements more has been accomplished and more satisfactorily than under the old system.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. C. Aehl Jr. is spending part of his vacation at Kellinolis at Wailuku. He will go to Harvard next year.

W. G. Scott and son Walter were in town Monday from Paia.

Alfred Hansen of Punene left Wednesday to resume his studies in Honolulu.

Miss Lida Caiehard arrived in Wailuku Tuesday evening where she will have charge of the grammar grade in the Wailuku School. Miss Caiehard is a teacher of many years' experience and will doubtless be a valuable addition to the Wailuku Public School.

Principal Copeland returned Tuesday from Honolulu where he went Friday.

Miss E. H. Nichols, Miss Ethel D. Wolfe and Miss Frances Biedt were all registered at the Maui Hotel this week. They have secured a cottage at W. H. Field up Iao Valley and will spend a vacation there.

Dan Conway is on Maui this week stocking up our merchants.

Mrs. D. H. Case returned home from the Malulani Hospital Saturday where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is yet in a weak condition but is steadily improving.

Dr. J. H. Raymond returned from Honolulu Saturday where he went to defend a suit brought against him by Ah Hoy. A few days before the suit was to be heard Ah Hoy withdrew the same.

A. C. Alexander of Honolulu was in Wailuku this week.

Ex Secretary of the Territory, A. L. C. Atkinson was on Maui this week with the Longworths. Jack was the most popular official in the Carter administration and has passed through the ordeal as popular as ever.

H. L. Auerbach of Honolulu was at the Maui Hotel this week.

School Inspector Wells Returns to Duty.

School Inspector Wells, who met with a serious fall last November, is now said to be fully recovered and will resume his duties with the school year in September. He is at present in California with relatives, and has spent the summer riding about and living in the open air.

Mr. Wells, while engaged in his duties on Maui, suffered a fall over a precipice and lay unconscious and uncared for from about 7 o'clock one evening until 4 o'clock the next afternoon. Search had been instituted for him. He was given medical attention at Paia for a time and was afterwards taken to Queen's Hospital, where he remained for a long time. He became physically better and was taken to California in the hope that the change of scene and climate would be good for him. It seems to have been, and he will report for duty with the full term.

Holloway Knockers.

Honolulu August 26.—Superintendent Holloway, of the Board of Public Works, evidently believes that silence is golden for he is saying very little notwithstanding the fact that there has been a great deal of talk by contractors and others against himself personally and his department generally.

"There has been so much said and printed," said he this morning when asked why he does not defend himself "that it has about reached the stage where I think it will have more of the opposite effect than what was intended. It doesn't take a great deal of insight to see that such one-sided statements day after day are not sincere, but are inspired by some motive other than the good of the public. There is likely to be some light shed on motives before a great while."

Mr. Holloway has the piece of wood found in the pump which it was stated had been left there by the workmen who made the machine. The piece is a block of Norway pine about six inches square by an inch and a half to an inch and three-quarters thick, and without doubt a piece from the end of one of the staves used in making the wooden conduit. How it got in the pump is a question, but Holloway does not believe that it was drawn through the suction.
